REBEL PREACHERS CHANGING THEIR MUSIC.

With the general collapse of the rebellion preachers of secession sympathies are getting somewhat uneasy in their seats. They preach and pray in a somewhat different strain, and their favorite phrases are getting a good deal out of fashlon. They have quit praying at the loyal sentiment of the country, and they now, in some sort of n way, manage to offer a petition for the President and the country. These are hopeful signs, and we are glad to say a word occasionally to help our weak brethren a step forward.

The "Association of Ministers," that control the columns of the Free Christian Commonwealth" are in no slight measure changing their manners if not their morals, They are less prominent in their secessionism if not less pious than formerly. Who knows but good may yet come out of the Third street Theological Book Store? Even the Devil gets a pions fit once in a while.

When the brethren first undertook to run a religious newspaper in the interests of the rebellion they talked about "This cruel war." and "This terrible bloody revolu tion." They could'nt say rebellion right out without a sort of choking sensation, but they now "speak right out in meeting" like "loyal folks." They tell us in plain words, "but in a sad lugabrious tone that "the 'war is over,' and the rebellion put down." Well, we are thankful for small favors, and amid the changes that are taking place among rebel politicians, there is hope even for rebel preachers:

For while the lamp holds out to burn, The viest rebei may return." We are therefore in favor of giving the brethren a chance, especially that "association of pious ministers," now undertaking to run the "Commonwealth."

S. S. PRESTON.

The Cineinnati papers speak of this Canadaized tobacco manufacturer, who is mixed up in the yellow fever business of Dr. Luke Blackburn, as of Covington, Ky. That may be, but this city was long honored with his presence. We have a reminiscence of him. He informed, on one oceasion, a distinguished female musical amateur, of this clly, that he understood that Madame Sontag would reach Louisville during the week with her corpsc.

Our Frankfort Letter.

Another Hop--Skiff & Gaylord--Freshet --Bullitt Case.
|Special Correspondence of the Union Press.]

FRANKFORT, May 27. The second regular hop of the season came off last evening at the Capital Hotel. The ladies were handsomely dressed and fun and pleasure ruled. Merrily sped the time until the "wee sma" hours of morn, It is difficult to name the belle among so many rural hearties but still I am inclined many rural beauties, but still I am inclined give the preference to Miss Bonnie oadhead, of Frankfort, though Miss Hattie Pirtle, of Louisville, and Miss Yeba Hewitt, of Frankfort, were lovely and ceautiful competitors.

The following ladies and gentlemen I noticed as being present: Miss Leu Dillon, Miss Scott, Miss Grey, Miss Lizzie Welch, Miss Lu Welch, Miss Berthie Hord, Miss Brown, Miss Eliza Brown, Miss Lizzie Starling, all of Frankfort; Miss Neal and Miss Court of Lexington, Miss Character, and M Gray, of Lexington, and Miss Churchill, of St. Louis. The gentlemen present were: Ex-Gov. Magoffin, Lieut. Gov. Jacob, Senator McHenry, Representatives DeHaven, Sayres, Faulkner, Kinney; Colonel Scott, Colonel Brown, Captain Webster, Captain Davis, Captain Ilarlan, Colonel Moore, Captain Grey, Judge Marshall, and a host

Captain Grey, Judge Marshall, and a host of others. Another hop will be given next week, so good people of Lonisville do send up a few young ladies or Frankfort will claim the "belle" of the season.

Messrs. Skiff and Gaylord closed an engagement of two nights, during which complete ovations greeted them. They furnished the music for the hop last night, and it was pronounced by judges as expanding the season. and it was pronounced by judges as ex-

The resolution to adjourn, which passed the Senate a few days since, was laid over in the Lower House, and so kills all idea of the adjournment on Monday.

The freshet yesterday in the Benson creek at Big Run creek, where there is a railroad bridge, was so strong that it carried away a couple of the supporting braces of the bridge; but with the usual energy displayed by Mr. Sam Gill, the Superiutendent, the danger will be averted, and the bridge made strong and safe again. The Kentneky at this point has risen at least Kentucky at this point has risen at least two feet, and is still rising. All the low lands are under water, and the damage to the farmers must in consequence be irre-parable and the crops destroyed immense, as they had planted a good deal the last

The Bullitt case was postponed till Monday, in the lower house, in consequence of the telegram received during the day by the counsel for defense. The Senate was however bent on examining witnesses, and Judge W. F. Bullock was sworn for the defense, but no new evidence was elicited. A motion to postpone the case was made till Monday.

The letter received by Governor Bramlette, it is hinted either contains important facts or the resignation of Judge J. F. Bullitt, but all of this can only be regarded as mere speculation, and not to be relied on. There was an amusing debate on the question, a repeal of part of the law entitled protection of sheep. There was a good deal of sporting talk, in this way a large amount of amusement was created to those who occupied the lobbies in the Senate, I would say that I forgot to mention a meeting of the Couservatives held here a few evenings since. The exhibition of the blind children was postponed last evening on account of the unfavorable state of the weather and is announed to take place on Monday evening, stay 29th, at the same time and place. It promises from the interest exhibited to be very interesting. The House to-day took up a substitute for the militia bill passed in the Senate, and a sharp discussion ensued. It seems that we are to have no lack of amusement now. I hear that Messrs. Duprez and Green's celebrated New Orleans Minstrels will appear here some time next week. They will have to work hard to beat the houses that greeted Messrs. Skiff & Gaylord.

DEATH OF J. G. JACK .- Our readers are no doubt aware of the melancholy death of J. G. Jack, by drowning. The rash act was committed Friday night about half past ten o'clock, at which time he went on board the wharfboat of the United States Mail Company and asked for Mr. Joseph Campion, the agent. He was informed that Mr. Campion could not be found until morning. Mr. Jack then borrowed the lamp of the wastelman by the Licht of which both the watchman, by the light of which wrote his address, "J. G. Jack, Louisville He then went to the lower end of the wharf-boat, accompanied by the watchman. He asked the depth of the water at that point, and the watchman answered twelve or fif-teen feet. Ho seemed satisfied with the answer, as he remarked that it was deep enough. He then said, "I am done for," and leaped into the river. The watchman raised the alarm, but before any assistance could be rendered, the unfortunate man was swept out of reach by theswift current.

Mr. Jack was one of the oldest business men in our city. Ho had been doing business for about twenty years on Main street. In the fall of 1862 he was embarrassed by some transactions in the South, and not being able to hear from his customers he failed for a large sum. Constant brooding over his unisfortanes caused a set-lied melancholy and abberation of the mind. At times he has seemed to recover and attempt business again, but with no success. A letter from his brother, who lives near Vicksburg, informed Mr. J. G. Jack that he too was ruised. All these circumstances, combined with the sickness of his wife, caused the snielde. His budy had not been recovered.

Mr. Jack was about fifty years of age, und leaves a wife and a large number of children in an almost destitute condition. The shock to his wife was so great that litthe hope is entertained of her recovery.

Kentucky Horneultunal Society,—
The first exhibition of this society for 1865 took place at the Masonic Temple Saturday morning. There was a fine contribution and a large crowd of visitors. We noticed some fine asparagus trom Valentine Frank that excelled anything we have ever seen. Messrs. T. S. Kennedy and F. Manrette contributed elegant boquets, The display of strawheries was exceedingly tine. We noticed from the Fern Creek Nursery of Mr. H. S. Duncans' the following of Mr. H. S. Duncans' the following varieties: Triemphe de Gard, Trollopis, Victoria, Alile, Maud, and McAvoy's Superior. They were splendid specimens, and were highly complimented by every oue present. Messrs. A. Hoke, C. C. Ceary, J. Johnson, and J. Stivers contributed some fine berries that were much admired. In fact we do not remember ever having seen such beamiful specimens of strawberries as were furnished for exhibition Saturday. The society will meet every Saturday during the season at 9 o clock A. M. The sale of fruits will begin at 11 o'clock

DR. EDWARD A. DUNN.-We would call the attention of our readers to the professional card of Dr. Dunn in another column of our paper. The Doctor has settled down in this city for the practice of medicine, and we can recommend him as an excellent and we can recommend him as an excellent and experienced physician. He was the Surgeon of the 15th Kentucky, and has the reputation of a first-class practitioner. Dr. Dnnn is the agent in Louisville of the American Artificial Limb Company, a consolidation of Palmer's. He will take correct measurements and furnish limbs with all sible dispatch. If any of our readers hould be so unfortunate as to need the services of any Doctor, we would recommend STEALING CATTLE.—Samuel and George Bowling, Henry Williams, George Riuton and William Putnam were arrested by two Government detectives vesterday for stealcattle from the corral at the head of ment mule to a German for a horse and rui off a number of cattle. Bowling, who is the overseer, one night last week sent all the guards and herdsmen to the theater, paying their admission, in order to have an opportunity of running off more cattle. The detectives got wind of the affair and arrestthe barracks awaiting an examination.

TOA party of drunken men created a row at the corner of Fifteenth and Kentucky streets, vesterday atternoon. It was dangerous for orderly people to pass that neighborhood. Pistols were fired, rocks thrown, and the worst of profanity indulged in. The military were called on to stop the disturbance, and a crowd of men and women arrested. This is the second time that a disturbance has occurred at that point on Sunday. We hope our anthorities will look into the matter and ferret out the cause.

Robbed.-Mrs. Smythe, who lives of Fourth street, between Walnut and Chestunt, lost a large portion of her wardrobe Saturday morning. Miss Belle Smythe was equally unfortunate. (Ifficer Henry Green was informed of the affair, and went to work to ferret out the thief. After a search he found the clothes hid away under the house, where they had been placed by a negro servant. Mr. Green arrested the negro girl and placed her in jail.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING A WATCH. Officers Gallagher and Tiller arrested John McNulty yesterday for stealing a watch from a clothing dealer on the wharf. Mc-Nulty was in the store pretending to buy a suit of clothes, and while the dealer was busy showing him goods, McNulty stole his LOUISVILLE THEATER.-Leo Hudson drew quite a brilliant andience Saturday afternoon to see her for the last time as Mazeppa. An entirely new scene was introduced, which was quite Indicrons, and which created a good deal of merriment. she appears to-night as Dick Turpin.

DISCHARGED.—Kate Finley, who has been in jail for some time on the charge of infanticide, had her trial Saturday. The case was submitted to the jury without ar-, and a verdict of not guilty returnguineld, and a verdict of not guilled. Kate was then discharged from custody

We return our thanks to Mr. H. S. Daucan, of the Fern Creek Nursery, for a plate of the fluest strawberries of the season. Mr. Duncan can always be found at the corner of Fourth and Market streets.

Is the Pioneer Company of Accident Insurance in this country. Under its charter, as granted by the Connecticut Legisla-ture of 1863, and amended by the Legislature of 1864, it insures against accidents of every description, whether they occur while traveling by cars, steamboats, or other publie conveyance; while engaged in the store, office, workshop, factory, on the farm, or in any of the ordinary occupations of life; whether ridiug, walking, hunting, boating, fishing, engiueering, surveying, railroad-ing, steam boating, or seated by the domestic tireside.

General accident policies issued by this company secure to the persons insured the payment of a fixed sum per week, (from $3 to $50,) during the time he may be disabled by accideut, not to exceed twenty-six weeks for any one accident; and, in case of death by average of the control of t of the risk, as consistent with the sound-ness and stability of the corporation and strict justice to all its patrons.

The company issued over ten thousand plicies during the first nine months after mmencing business, and has paid over the hundred claims for losses. All claims r loss or compensation have been promptly paid, to the satisfaction of the party in-sured. The business of the company is steadily increasing; its capital ample, with a continually accumulating surplus; and its affairs are managed with the pridence and sagacity which have established the good reputation of Hartford insurance companies throughout the country.

No medical examination is required, and thousands of those who have been rejected by Life Companies, in consequence of he-reditary or other diseases, can effect insureducty or other diseases, can effect insurance in the Travelers, at the lowest rates.

Life Insurance Companies pay no part of the principal sum until the death of the assured. This Company pays the loss or damage sustained by personal injury wheuever it occurs. The feeling of security which such an Insurance gives to those dependent upon their own labor for support, is worth more than

The rates of premium are less than in any other class of insurance, in proportion t the risk.
Accident Insurance to persons disabled by accident is like the Sanitary Commission to wounded soldiers in the field, providing the means for comfort and healing and supplying their wants while prevented from pur-sning their usual employment. No better or more satisfactory investment can be made of so small a snm. Therefore insure in the Traveler's Insurance Company. Alfred Pirtle, agent, 324 Maln street, Lonisville, Ky.

By Mr. Stone—Do you know Walter Bowie? No, sir, Did you see a man called by that name at Dr. Mudd's house last No sir The ann lany was that she was truthful. No one romised me anything for my testimony, Baptist Washington (colored) testified: ived at Dr. Mudd's about nine months last year. Don't know either Ben or Andrew wynn. Never saw Capt. White, Perry's nor the Gwynns at Mudd's. Didu't know of any person stopping near the spring last summer. Never knew of any horses being kept at the stable not belonging to the place. Never knew any one put much con-idence in Mary Simms. Dr. Mudd treated he servants. Didn't know Surrott, Mary Simms sald: Lived with Samuel Mndd; has not staid away over three weeks in n year; she had a slight acquaintnuce with Captain Gwynn, and knew Andrew Gwynn and George Gwynn, John Surratt well: she uever saw auv of them at Mudd's last year; never heard of any staying in the woods and being fed from the house. A. H. Howell testified: He knew Mrs. Surratt; he had been at her house at Sur-rattsville, and also her house in Washingtou; thought gas was lit in the hall at Washington house; Mrs. Surratt did not recognize him till he spoke.

Witness knew Weichtman; witness staid at Mrs. Surratt's two days; went on a visit; had no business; was short of money and didn't go to a hotel; witness showed Weichtman how to make cipher, and could tell it if he saw it; witness had a talk with Weichtman about his going South; he wanted to go and wanted to get a place wanted to go and wanted to get a place there; he sympathized with the South, and had doue all ne could for the South, had always been a friend of the South. Judge Bingham objected to all this, and thought it a burlesque on justice. The Commission sustained him. Witness didn't learn of any lot while at Surrat ville. Surrat never gave witness my nessage to Surrat never gave witness any message to take to Richmond. Weichman gave witness full returns of the number of prisoners the United States had, and said he had the documents in his own office.

On cross-examination witness said he knew Surratt, but he never accompanied witness to Richmonl. Witness had not been doing anything since leaving the rebel

Had made trips to Richmond sometimes in three month, had been twice since April the 1st. A year ago, in December and February, there might have been some one with him. Did you do anything for your support? Answer-Why, I have been spec-nlating. Don't know as I was known by friends as blockade runner; was sometimes celled Spencer, my name is A. S. ### From Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The principal cost offices in Virginia, Georgia, Lonisiana, North Carolina and South Carolina are at present managed by special agents. No appointments of postmasters will be made till the post routes are re-established, and a suitable opportunity occurs of consulting the public interests and the wishes of the respective communities upon that subject.

It is now thought that all the witnesses in the conspiracy trial will be examined be-fore Thursday, and after that the argu-ments will be commenced. An effort will be made to close the case by the end of the The corner stone of the monument at the

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Times Ra-leigh correspondent says, guerrillas are fairly at work in North Carolina, although most strenuous efforts are made to prevent these outrages. Lieutenaut Colonel Dawes and force, of the 3d Pennsyvania cavalry, was attacked about fifteen miles from Fay-ettevilie, and only a few miles from one of our cavalry posts. After taking their money watches and horses, the guerrillas released them. The country has been thoroughly scoured in the vicinity, but no traces of the miscreants have been discovered, they are supposed to have been some of Johnston's forces, who went home on their own responsibility before the surrender.

Batween $60,000 and $70,000 in gold was discovered recently at the company's shops of the North Carolina railroad, by some of our troops camped there, it was immediately confiscated by the soldiers of the regiment who found it, the 10th Ohio cavalry. The matter is now undergoing investigation at headquarters. The money belonged to he Bank of Commerce.
Dr. J. T. Lench, one of the prominent Union men of North Carolina, made a coutract with his negroes to give them food and clothing as before, and to pay them $10 per month. The result is, only a few have left him. Gen. Schofield has Issued on order prohibiting free distribution of ratious to inhabitants after the last of this month.

Saturday Night's Dispatches.

New York, May 27.—The Halifax Sun and Advertiser, of the 19th has the follow-ing relative to the trial of the alleged ac-complice of Blackburn, and a few facts in elation to that villain.

The case of Swann, the alleged accomplice of Blackburn, after a strict judicial investigation, has been seut up to the Attor-noy General for trial at the assizes. Swann remains in custody until liberated on bail. Every honest paper execrates the infer-nal malice which devised the dastardly scheme, and the Canadian press denomice Dr. Blackburn as a hellish plotter-the greatest villain unlung, and so on.

We are sorry to see the editor of the Un-onist, in a paragraph to-day, attempt to lefend him from the charge. It is well known in this city that on his eturn from Bermuda he boasted of his in-ention to destroy the Yankees en masse v the introduction of yellow fever into he Northern cities through the means of nfected garments and hospital clothing; nd we are told by this organ that his ancedents are too magnanimons to warrant

We beg to say his Halifax antecedents were neither manly or well bred; in fact, he showed himself an Insolent brawler and pistol carrying bully; but we didn't give him full credit for the cowardly truculence to a nation nurderous and mailgnant to the

The Commercial's Washington special ave the demonstration and indignation of Jeff Davis on being placed on army rations was the cause of his being put in irons. The conservative delegation from North Carolina is now confining its efforts to se-curing the observance of the old State laws in the elections for the lormation of the new State Government. This view will be probably sustained by President Johnson, who doubts the anthority of the Federal Government to interfere with the status revious to secession.
